Introduction

This document demonstrates how myPerspectives™ English Language Arts meets the criteria of the EQUIP Rubric for Lessons & Units: ELA (Grades 6-12). Correlation page references are to the Student Edition and Teacher’s Edition and are cited by selection or feature title.

myPerspectives™ English Language Arts is a learning environment that focuses on a connected approach to student learning. Students read texts and engage in activities that inspire thoughtful conversation, discussion, and debate.

Students will encounter authors’ perspectives as they read literature from across time periods and cultures. Students will listen to the perspectives of their peers through conversations and collaborative activities. And, as students read the literature and engage in activities in myPerspectives, they will formulate—and defend—their opinions as they develop their own perspectives.

In each unit of study, students will read classic and contemporary fiction and nonfiction texts, and view/listen to media selections, all related to an Essential Question. Students will use technology to interact with texts and activities, and they can write directly in their Student Edition to make interaction with texts more meaningful.

I. Alignment to the Depth of the CCSS
The lesson/unit aligns with the letter and spirit of the CCSS:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Targets a set of grade-level CCSS ELA/Literacy standards. 	The 2017 edition of Pearson myPerspectives fully supports the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). Each lesson includes a range of skills and learning strategies that provide full coverage of the CCSS ELA standards. A complete correlation of the Student Edition to the standards appears in the Teacher's Edition frontmatter. (See Grade 8 myPerspectives TE, pp. T46–T59.) CCSS ELA standards are addressed with selections and assignments throughout the book and structured as follows: Specific CCS ELA standards are tied to developmental lesson progressions around literary and informational readings such as First Read, Close Read, Analyze the Text, Analyze Craft and Structure, and Language Development. These CCS standards are identified on the Lesson Resources page of the Teacher Edition (e.g. pages 12B and 222B). These same standards are identified at point of use before and after readings in the Student Edition (e.g. pages 222, 226, and 230). In addition, myPerspectives+ digital resources and tools optimize use of technology to support student learning of CCSS ELA standards. The Launch Text commonly appears at the advent of a unit. The text is utilized to address the topic within a unit, facilitates student discussion, and introduces a writing model that will be reintroduced performance-based assessments. For examples see: SE/TE: Unit Goals, 4, 90, 256, 342, 440; Launch Text: Explanatory Essay, 92; Argument Model, 258; Informative Text Model, 344 Students then engage in whole and small group learning through one or more texts within the unit. They participate in guided learning activities, including specific reading instructions that allow for careful reading of the text, close study of concept vocabulary, and context clues. For examples see: SE/TE: Comprehension Check, 151, 187; Close Read the Text, 282, 290, 310; Concept Vocabulary, 154, 156, 190, 212, 218, 222; Analyze Craft and Structure, 189, 227, 310, 321, 381; Conventions, 25, 52, 74, 155, 191, 228; Speaking and Listening, 27, 53; Research, 313, 523; Writing to Sources, 274, 462, 476 In addition, digital resources and tools optimize use of technology to support clear program instructional purposes: Interactive Student Edition with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unit and Student Modeling Videos myPerspectives+ with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Graphic Organizers & Rubrics

• Selects text(s) that measure within the grade-level text complexity band and are of sufficient quality and scope for the stated purpose (e.g., presents vocabulary, syntax, text structures, levels of meaning/purpose, and other qualitative characteristics similar to CCSS grade-level exemplars in Appendices A & B).	myPerspectives contains selections that are at the level of text complexity required in Standard 10 of Reading: Literature and Standard 10 of Reading: Informational Text. The selections chosen, from both classic and contemporary literature, are qualitatively rich, with the vocabulary, syntactical and structural devices, levels of meaning or purpose, required to lead students to success in reading texts of increasing complexity. Text Complexity Rubrics in the Teacher's Edition identify Quantitative and Qualitative information about each selection in the program. In addition, the Text Complexity Rubrics provide Reader and Task suggestions that enable teachers to tailor instruction for struggling, on-level, above level, and advanced students so all students are able to access the same text. Appendix A of the Common Core State Standards identifies three dimensions for evaluating text complexity: quantitative, qualitative, and reader-task relations. In the Teacher's Edition, for every main selection, a Text Complexity Rubric provides a Lexile (a quantitative measure of complexity), as available, and ranks the selection in terms of qualitative factors identified in Appendix A. In addition, for each main text, the Text Complexity rubrics suggest two reader-task relations that teachers can use to inflect the complexity of the text, again per Appendix A.

II. Key Shifts in the CCSS
The lesson/unit addresses key shifts in the CCSS:
• Reading Text Closely: Makes reading text(s) closely, examining textual evidence, and discerning deep meaning a central focus of instruction.	The structure of each unit of myPerspectives provides a clear instructional focus through Unit Goals (see pages 4, 90, 256, 342, 440) and a modeled Launch Text (see pages 6, 92, 258, 344, 442). The Launch Text provides students with a common starting point to address the unit topic. After reading the Launch Text, all students will be able to participate in discussions texts and deepen their reading as they interact and engage closely with unit selections. Text evidence and close reading skills and activities instruction include the following features and structures: Every main selection is followed up with post reading questions and a writing activity in the Making Meaning, Language Development, and Effective Expression portions of the lessons. Close Read the Text and Analyze the Text features (for examples, see pages 22, 62, 72, 152, 188, and 199) require students to analyze the text, make valid claims, and reply using evidence from the text. The Analyze Craft and Structure feature include practice in which students pull evidence from the selection they just read (for examples, see pages 73, 153, 189, 381, 423, 459, and 506). Students are required to complete Writing to Sources writing assignments focused on the thought-provoking theme or topic they have explored (for examples, see pages 26, 193, 274, 323, 434, 462, and 476). These prompts require students to draw extensively on text evidence and to synthesize the evidence from the text. Text-dependent Speaking and Listening activities require students to complete an assignment and collaborate.

• Text-Based Evidence: Facilitates rich and rigorous evidence-based discussions and writing about common texts through a sequence of specific, thought-provoking, and text-dependent questions (including, when applicable, questions about illustrations, charts, diagrams, audio/video, and media).	At the 8th grade level, in myPerspectives, selections in the Whole-Class and Small-Group Learning segments are followed by text-dependent writing, listening and speaking activities which specifically require students to provide text evidence in their responses. Every main selection is followed up with post reading questions and a writing activity in the Making Meaning, Language Development, and Effective Expression portions of the lessons. Close Read the Text and Analyze the Text features (for examples, see pages 22, 62, 72, 152, 188, and 199) require students to analyze the text, make valid claims, and reply using evidence from the text. The Analyze Craft and Structure feature include practice in which students pull evidence from the selection they just read (for examples, see pages 73, 153, 189, 381, 423, 459, and 506). Each unit also features one writing and one speaking & listening Performance Task that can be completed individually or collaboratively. The unit provides an additional Performance-Based Assessment workshop that includes a writing project and a speaking and listening presentation, which both build on the unit tasks. The CCS standards covered are listed on the Lesson Resources page of the teacher's edition (e.g. page 440B) and at point of use on the student edition pages (e.g. pages 448, 458, and 462).

• Writing from Sources: Routinely expects that students draw evidence from texts to produce clear and coherent writing that informs, explains, or makes an argument in various written forms (e.g., notes, summaries, short responses, or formal essays).	At the 8th grade level, in myPerspectives, following each selection are close reading activities. Here you will find Writing to Sources features, which present writing assignments in response to the text students have just read. Students are expected to analyze and reflect on the text, and to support all responses with text evidence. In addition, each unit contains a set of paired readings or readings paired with Media in the Compare feature. Those readings are followed by Writing to Compare assignments which are text-dependent and require students to draw evidence from the text. Each unit also features one writing and one speaking & listening Performance Task that can be completed individually or collaboratively. The unit provides an additional Performance-Based Assessment workshop that includes a writing project and a speaking and listening presentation, which both build on the unit tasks. SE/TE: Performance Task: Write a Nonfiction Narrative, 34–39; Write an Explanatory Essay, 202–207; Write an Argument, 296–301; Write an Informative Speech, 390–395; Write an Argument, 478–483; Writing to Compare, 32–33, 200–201, 294–295, 388–389, 508–509; Write to Sources, 26, 193, 274, 323, 434, 462, 476 myPerspectives+ with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing & Research Center

• Academic Vocabulary: Focuses on building students' academic vocabulary in context throughout instruction.	In myPerspectives, vocabulary learning strategies are consistently built into the unit using vocabulary from any given text within the unit. Opportunities for vocabulary building and development are provided from beginning to end of unit, alongside practical word applications. In the Unit Introduction, students are introduced to Academic Vocabulary that are connected to the unit goals and readings. More targeted words precede and follow nearly every selection in the Concept Vocabulary feature, which is paired with Word Study (after the readings). SE/TE: Academic Vocabulary, 5, 91, 257, 343, 441; Concept Vocabulary (examples), 72, 100, 154, 156, 190, 212, 218 In addition, myPerspectives digital resources and tools optimize use of technology to provide additional vocabulary work. • Increasing Text Complexity: Focus students on reading a progression of complex texts drawn from the grade-level band. Provide text-centered learning that is sequenced, scaffolded and supported to advance students toward independent reading of complex texts at the CCR level.	myPerspectives contains selections that are at the level of text complexity required in Standard 10 of Reading: Literature and Standard 10 of Reading: Informational Text. The selections chosen, from both classic and contemporary literature, are qualitatively rich, with the vocabulary, syntactical and structural devices, levels of meaning or purpose, required to lead students to success in reading texts of increasing complexity. Text Complexity Rubrics in the Teacher’s Edition identify Quantitative and Qualitative information about each selection in the program. • Building Disciplinary Knowledge: Provide opportunities for students to build knowledge about a topic or subject through analysis of a coherent selection of strategically sequenced, discipline-specific texts.	Each unit contains selections that build on a topic related to the unit's Essential Question and all texts are meant to build knowledge on the unit topic. Following each reading, students are prompted to re-read the text exploring its language, its key ideas, its structure, and merit. Students engage in academic discussions about the text, research an aspect of the text, and write about the text, using citations from the selection to support their conclusions. At the end of the selections, students discuss the texts as a whole and, through writing, share their insights and knowledge. Mini-groupings of selections, all joined by the unit's Essential Question, are built into the Whole-Class Learning, Small-Group Learning, and Independent Learning sections of each unit. For examples of this thematically joined unit structure, see the following pages: SE/TE: Unit Introduction, 3, 89, 255, 341, 339 Also note how the digital resources support this structure and provide additional materials for building disciplinary knowledge: Interactive Student Edition with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unit and Student Modeling Videos • Interactive lessons Interactive Teacher's Edition with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Annotation models • Downloadable lesson resources myPerspectives+ with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Digital Library provides 130+ full-length eBooks • Trade Book Lesson plans - 140+ Novel Lesson Plans

• Balance of Texts: Within a collection of grade-level units a balance of informational and literary texts is included according to guidelines in the CCSS (p. 5).	myPerspectives provides a range of reading opportunities both literary and literary nonfiction/information and include narrative fiction, graphic novel experts, poetry, drama, functional and foundational texts and documents. The Table of Contents identifies the genres of each text included in the program. The texts have been carefully selected to enable students to encounter a wide and rich range of literary and informational texts. Texts were chosen based on criteria such as literary merit, author’s craft, themes, gender and cultural representations, and experiences, insights, readability, and diversity. Each unit contains selections that build on a topic related to the unit’s Essential Question and all texts are meant to build knowledge on the unit topic. See the table of contents and unit introduction pages for listings of selections identified by genre and relationship to other readings: SE/TE: Table of Contents, T6–T15 (SE pages vi–xv); Unit Introduction, 3, 89, 255, 341, 339 Also note how the digital resources support this structure and provide informational and literary texts: myPerspectives+ with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Digital Library provides 130+ full-length eBooks • Trade Book Lesson plans - 140+ Novel Lesson Plans

Students working through the unit will complete an average of one Writing to Sources activity each week. These assignments are designed for students to learn and use the full range of writing process elements. In addition, each unit contains a set of paired readings or readings paired with Media in the Compare feature. Those readings are followed by Writing to Compare assignments which are text-dependent and require students to draw evidence from the text.
