

Allan E. Bellman, Ph.D., is an Associate Professor of Mathematics Education at the University of Mississippi. He previously taught at the University of California, Davis, for 12 years and in public school in Montgomery County, Maryland for 31 years. He has been an instructor for both the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation and the Texas Instruments T³ program. Dr. Bellman has expertise in the use of technology in education and assessment-driven instruction and speaks frequently on these topics. He is a recipient of Texas Instruments' Teachers Teaching with Technology Leadership Award and the Tandy Award for Teaching Excellence, and he has been listed multiple times in Who's Who Among America's Teachers.