

MEMO

To: All School Content Requesters (the "Requestor")

From: Rights Management Team, Pearson K12 Learning LLC (the "Publisher")

August 2019

Instructions for Requesting Materials for Classroom Use

Dear Requestor: To better understand and best process your request, kindly refer to the instructions below:

#1 Complete the form as best you can, which should list:

- The Book's Title and Author;
- The ISBN

'International Standard Book Number' or 'ISBN' is a number (10 or 13 digitals long) that is typically found on the back cover near the bar code -or- will appear on the copyright page at the beginning of your Book;

- The page numbers or specific content that you wish to use
e.g., "Text only from pages 2-3" -or- "the picture on page 583";
- Your total number of Students; and
- Distribution method: How will this content be distributed to your Students?

Photocopies; Digital pdf scan or other? (please clarify)

- IF* a pdf scan; What server or digital service [www.  .com | .org] will be used by your Students to access?*

#2 Kindly provide a picture or scan (pdf, jpg, etc.) of the CREDITS and/or ACKNOWLEDGMENTS PAGE(S) as it exists on your edition of the Book - typically found at the very beginning or the very end of your book.

#3 IF your sought content contains images, tables or illustrations (non-text); kindly provide a picture of the actual VISUAL CONTENT that you wish to use from your copy of the book....

Please send the completed form and all attachments via email to:
K12LearningPermissions@pearson.com

Or mail to the Publisher:

Pearson K12 Learning LLC, 221 River Street, Hoboken, NJ 07030 [USA]

ATTN: Jeff Knaster, Rights Management Team, 3rd Floor

Note: The Publisher cannot grant permission for Outside Party Content. The Requestor may refer to the Credits and Acknowledgments page of their copy of the book — if other sources are cited, permission must be requested from the original source title/material.

Thank you for your interest in Pearson K12 Learning products!

-The Rights Management Team